Section 2. Regular membership shall consist of those persons having an appreciation of and a genuine interest in furthering the objectives of the Association. Section 3. Honorary Membership is reserved for those persons that the Association deems worthy of honoring because of outstanding methodological work in the field of paleontology and/or outstanding assistance in helping the Association achieve its objectives. Section 5. All Regular Members will be sent 2 dues notices. Any member whose dues have not been paid by January 1st will be dropped from the membership rolls. All rights, privileges, and interest of a member in or to the Association shall cease on the termination of membership. Such persons will be reinstated upon payment of delinquent dues. The Board of Directors, for reasons it deems appropriate, may waive or reduce the annual dues of any member except themselves, or of all members.

Section 6. The membership status of any member or officer of the Association may be revoked for violation of the ethics agreement. Upon receiving substantiating evidence of an ethics violation, the Board must convene an ad hoc investigatory committee comprised of one elected officer and two general members of the Association. This committee will present their findings to the full Board, which may vote for censure in cases of first offences, or revocation of membership status, as they deem appropriate.

Article IV - Amendments to the Constitution

Section 1. Adoption of amendments to this Constitution shall require previous notice by email, be listed separately, and require a two-thirds affirmative vote on each individual amendment change. The ballot will be open to the entire membership entitled to vote, and accessible through their member login and password.
